THE LOVASIK ESTATE SALE

父亲于2008年去世，我们最近开始请护工照料母亲。几个表兄想买我们的宅子，于是我和迈克决定把它卖给他们。不过，宅子里那么多的东西很难一下子都搬出去，也没法全卖掉。因此，我们把房产评估师和中介商特瑞请过来，看看她愿不愿意把这些东西都买去。后来，她说你们有意向把宅子里的东西统统买下。我们卖了这些东西，销售所得可以支付母亲每月的部分开销，另外把宅子卖给表兄，怎么也算“肥水不流外人田”吧。我们懒得把房子租出去，今后也不会搬回来住。

清理里面的物品是最让人纠结的事。这就像翻阅一本承载了太多记忆的旧相册一样，所有的东西都是这些记忆的一部分，但话又说回来，“生不带来，死不带走”。对我们来说很有纪念意义的东西，对我们的孩子来说什么都不是。因此，我在努力做一些取舍，割舍那些有形的物品，同时努力把记忆留下。希望当我看到你们制作的物品目录时，能唤起尘封的记忆，再把那些故事讲给孩子们听。另外，事情来得有点太突然，就像一场葬礼——直到所有后事都料理完了，才是你感到悲伤的时候。那天，在你已经清空的宅子拍完照后，我和迈克驱车回去了一趟，我哭了一路。我想迈克最后也挺动情，因为有很多老照片都被卖掉，这也许是最让人伤感的事情。虽然这宅子更多地留下了我们对祖父和父亲的记忆，但我们这样做是为了母亲。她含辛茹苦把我们抚养成人，现在我们要保证有人照顾她，让她安享晚年。因此，这些有形的东西并不那么难以割舍，但是我们会永远保存那份记忆。我们再次感谢你提供这样好的机会。

请随时告知上海双年展的进展情况。—XXX

Daddy died in 2008 and we recently put mom in assisted care. Mike and I decided to have the estate sale when our cousins expressed interest in buying the property. We knew we would never be able to move or sell things quick enough, so I had Terri (estate appraiser and seller) come in to see if we had enough stuff to make it worth while for her and for us. And that's when she approached us about your offer to buy everything. The decision to sell the items was based on knowing it would help to pay a small portion of our mom's monthly expenses and selling the house to our cousins would "keep it in the family." We didn't want to become landlords, and we knew neither of us would move back to the house.

Going through things was the hardest part. It was like going through a photo album of memories and all these objects were part of them, but in the end "you can't take it with you," and the things that were important to us aren't really meaningful to our kids. So, I am trying to practice letting go of these material things but still keep the memories. Hopefully, with your catalog, I can go through and jot down memories of things for my kids. Also, this happened kind of quick, sort of like a funeral—it doesn't really hit you until everything is all over. When Mike and I left after you came to take pictures of the empty house that day I cried driving home. I think it finally hit Mike then too, especially since we sent a lot of pictures and that may have been the hardest thing to do. Even though this has been more about my grandfather and dad, it really is for my mom. She always took care of us, and so now we want to make sure she is taken care of. So it's a little easier to let go of the material things, but the memories we will keep forever. Again, thanks for this opportunity. Please keep us informed about the progress in Shanghai. —Michelle Lovasik

This is a picture biography of the LOVASIK FAMILY. My father, baptized Stephen Emery Lovasik, was born in Dolny Hricov, Slovakia, September 17, 1883, in the province of Trencin. His father was the owner of a farm, and his mother, Anna Vrsansky, was also born in Dolny Hricov.

This is a picture of my father's family, his father and mother, two sisters, one called Josephine, his brother, Andrew, two years younger, and his two uncles, his mother's brothers.

Dad's sister, Josephine.

Dad, and his brother Andrew, at 16.

This is the home my father built in 1914. The address is still the same: 211 W. 7th Avenue, Tarentum, Pa. My father and mother came to live in Tarentum after their marriage in 1911. In 1914 they moved to this new home and opened a meat market and grocery store on the street floor. My father and his brother Andrew were butchers and partners for a number of years. My father remained in business till 1925. All children, six in number, beginning with Wilma, were born in this home. It will always remain our home, and a memorial to our dear parents.

This is the show window on the grocery side of our store. Each Christmas uncle Frank, my mother's brother, would decorate the window, making the tiny homes out of cardboard and wood. This picture was taken in 1920. I used to watch uncle Frank make his many beautiful displays. The display includes our home, Railroad station, Grandview School

SAFELY HOME

I am home in heaven, dear ones
Oh, so happy and so bright!
There is perfect joy and beauty
In this everlasting light.
All the pain and grief is over,
Every restless feeling passed;
I am now at peace forever,
Safely home in heaven at last.

Did you wonder I am calmly
Tread the valley of the shadow?
Oh! for Jesus' love I stand!
Every dark and fearful guide
And He came Himself to save me
In that way so hard to tread,
And with Jesus' arm to lean on,
Could I have one doubt or dread?

Then you must not grieve so sorely,
For I love you dearly still;
Try to look beyond earth's shadows,
Pray to trust our Father's Will.
There is work still waiting for you
So you must not life stand;
Do it now, while life remains—
You shall see in Jesus' land.

When that work is all completed,
He will gladly call you home;
Oh, the rapture of that meeting,
Oh, the joy to see you come!

Mary love you!

I think about both of you, Mother and Dad,
 Much more than you ever could know,
 And though I am lonesome, it makes me feel glad
 To think of those days long ago,
 So this comes with love and with gratitude, too,
 For all of the things you have done
 To make every memory of home and of you
 So treasured and dear to your son.

*Your loving son,
 Leo*
